

Welcome to

The Festival of Weaving

IN ÅMOSEN NATURE RESERVE 2017

WHITSUN 3-5 JUNE 11.00-16.00

The Weavers' House, Kattrup Gods (Kattrup Estate), Kattrupvej 22, 4450 Jyderup, Denmark

Following its success in 2016, the Festival of Weaving in Åmosen Nature Reserve returns in 2017 to the beautiful Kattrup Estate.

The Festival of Weaving is organised by Weavers in West Zealand and The Weavers' House, working in collaboration with West Zealand Museum, Holbæk Museums Association, Karlundborg Museums Association, Odsherreds Art Museum & the Friends of Malergården (The Painters' Farm), Åmosen Nature Reserve and the Support Fund for Åmosen Nature Reserve, as well as many local artisans and producers.

The aim of the Festival of Weaving is to pass on knowledge and experiences, helping to preserve and protect crafts, cultural heritage, nature and cultural life in West Zealand. We return to a forgotten time, seeking to make ancient knowledge relevant and vivid for people today.

Through these goals we seek to draw local, national and international visitors to the area.

On the poster for this year's Festival of Weaving is the celebrated personality, Karoline Graves (1858-1932). With her lifelong connection to Åmosen, her authorship and her dedication to collecting folklore, Graves represents an important exponent of the history and cultural life of this region. In the exhibition 'When Past and Present Meet', we tell the story of Graves's life and deeds, focusing on her attitudes to crafts, nature, cultural heritage and traditional way of life, all of which have relevance today.

The exhibition contains displays of boards and objects relating to Karoline Graves and to Åmosen, particularly regarding peat digging in the former high bog and the water level at Karoline Grave's time and woven textiles, which are at once typical of the era of Karoline Graves and fashionable today.

The Festival of Weaving, which will be opened by Ole Gahn, Head of the Culture and Leisure Committee of Kalundborg Municipality, will take place over three days, each day having its own theme:

DAY OF THE LOOM 3rd June

On DAY OF THE LOOM we have organised a special programme for those with an interest in weaving. Visitors have the option to participate both in the Festival of Weaving's regular programme and in a series of events which centre around weaving, weaving and more weaving! We particularly recommend that people with a particular interest in weaving visit the Festival on this day

KAROLINE GRAVES DAY 4th June

On KAROLINE GRAVES Day we focus on the story of the author, folklore collector and craftsperson, Karoline Graves, who lived 1858-1932. Join us for a tour of the exhibition 'When Past and Present Meet' and learn more about the life of Karoline Graves. You can also take a nature walk with Ella Petersen and Katrine Møhl in Kattrups beautiful surroundings

CONSTITUTION DAY 5th June

At The Festival of Weaving 2017, we will be marking the Danish Constitution Day with three talks by women: Karoline Graves herself (a.k.a. Gitte Stolberg), former politician and chair of WWF Gitte Seeberg (11:30), and journalist and author, Lone Kühlmann (14:00) Come and hear what these three speakers have to say

Over the 3 days, the public will have the opportunity to take part in a series of exciting events and activities:
